PINWHEEL CEREMONY TO HONOR CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH

BATON ROUGE – Hundreds of pinwheels will be on display to recognize April as Child Abuse Prevention Month during a ceremony at 1:30 p.m., Monday, April 7, at the Iberville State Office Building, 627 N. 4th Street, Baton Rouge.

Invited speakers are Department of Social Services Secretary Ann Silverberg Williamson, DSS/Office of Community Services Assistant Secretary Marketa Garner Gautreau and Prevent Child Abuse Louisiana President and Chief Executive Officer Anna Fogle.

OCS and PCAL are participating in Pinwheels for Prevention, a national demonstration of the fast-growing belief that citizens can prevent – not just respond to child abuse and neglect. Monday's ceremony will recognize efforts by the DSS employees and others to support prevention efforts.
